T-Shirts, Tee Shirts, Tees... call them what you will.

They first appeared on the American scene around WWI, when the U.S. Navy thought that covering the chest hair of sailors was a necessity. Ask any woman if this really was a good idea, and you'll get various opinions. My preference is the Navy got it wrong, but that's just me.

Fact is sailors and fishermen have worn snug, short-sleeved shirts for centuries. You know the look...

Wiry European types with one-inch cigarette butts permanently attached to their lower lips,

The tug deckhand throwing a hawser out to a tour boat,

The construction worker whose sleeves have a way of gathering at the top of his arms, often wrapped around a pack of cigarettes, and

Those huge formidable men, looking like old bulls, effortlessly uncrating those monster Hawgs.

And to the prescient designer who decided to give women a little more room by removing the sleeves, shoulders, fabric around the neck, cut lower in the back and front... you know what I mean...the tank top. Very comfortable...thank you.

T-Shirts are ubiquitous. They are sexy, cool and kool. Just look at McQueen, Brando and Dean.

T-Shirts for men, ladies and kids by Alpine Stars, Bi-Polar, Black Label Society, Boyd Coddington, Chica, Choppers Apparel, Convicted Clothing, Crime Inc., Dented So. Cal., Dependent, Dickies, Dirty Devil, Dragonfly, Dump Truck, Felon, Hard Rock Café, Hollywood Chopperz, Hot & Nasty, Indian Larry, L.A. Ink, Lucky 13, No Fear, Vortex... you get the idea. Bob was in trouble. He forgot his wedding anniversary. His wife was really mad. She told him "Tomorrow morning, I expect to find a gift in the driveway that goes from 0 to 200 in 6 seconds AND IT BETTER BE THERE !!!"

The next morning Bob got up early and left for work. When his wife woke up, she looked out the window and sure enough there was a box gift-wrapped in the middle of the driveway.

Confused, the wife put on her robe and ran out to the driveway, and brought the box back into the house.

She opened it and found a brand new bathroom scale.

Bob has been missing since Friday.
